

New Jersey Community Development Corporation

Chief Development Officer

Package: Salary will be competitive with market rate and negotiable depending upon experience

Location: North America - Paterson, New Jersey

Deadline: 20 September 2019

New Jersey Community Development Corporation (NJCDC) is a multi-faceted community development and social service agency providing opportunities to transform lives in the historic city of Paterson, New Jersey. Their mission is to create opportunities to transform lives of all 8,000 children living or going to school in Paterson's Great Falls Promise Neighborhood by having them graduate high school, college and being career ready.

To join the executive leadership team, NJCDC is seeking a Chief Development Officer to oversee all aspects of the organization's fund-raising, communications, and marketing activities and for serving as the organization's key external affairs representative to diverse audiences. The Chief Development Officer requires a high performing individual with proven skills in identifying, cultivating, soliciting and stewarding corporate and individual donors and foundations, as well as marketing skills and techniques to enhance the organization's profile. We are seeking a creative, results-oriented, extremely hardworking and self-starting individual who can handle and prioritize multiple activities and responsibilities.
